SPECIAL NOTICE.

To turn out the electric light: Take hold of the metal end of the lamp where it enters the socket and turn to the left until the lamp goes out.

To turn on the light: Turn to the right until it is lighted, then stop. You may put the light out by turning it too far to the right.

Never take the lamp out of the socket, or meddle with it at all, except to light or put out as above directed.

Any interference with the lamp which would cause it to go out and make a repair of the wire necessary can always be traced directly to the cell where it occurred, and will deprive the prisoner of his lamp altogether.

N. N. JONES,

Warden.

RULES FOR GOVERNMENT OF CONVICTS.

Section 1. Convicts are to labor faithfully and diligently and obey all orders promptly.

Sec. 2. They are not to communicate with each other in any way, except in the presence of their keeper or foreman; nor are they to make any signs but such as are necessary to convey their wants to their keeper.

Sec. 3. Prisoners must approach all officers of the prison in a respectful manner. They must always take off their caps when going into the bell-house. They are not to speak to an officer, except when it becomes necessary in relation to their work or wants.

Sec. 4. They are not to speak to any person who does not belong to the prison, nor give or receive any presents without the permission of the Warden. They are not to leave the place where they are put to work, nor the work they are set to do, without permission of the officer in charge.

Sec. 5. They are not to give their attention to visitors passing through the yard or shops.

Sec. 6. No prisoner is to willfully or carelessly injure his work-tools, wearing apparel, bedding, or other things belonging to the prison; or mar, injure or deface the walls of his cell or shop.

Sec. 7. They are not to chew tobacco in the dining-room or chapel.

Sec. 8. Any prisoner wanting medical treatment must report at the sick table in the morning; or if he becomes sick during the day he shall report himself to the officer in charge, who will report him to the Warden.

Sec. 9. They shall march in such order as designated by the officer in charge.

Sec. 10. No prisoner will be allowed to sleep with his clothes on; they shall preserve cleanliness as far as lies in their power.

Sec. 11. Prisoners may make known their complaints or grievances, but not in the presence of a fellow prisoner.

Sec. 12. On going into their cells, each prisoner shall close his door and hold his hand on the door until locked; he must also hold his hand on the door while being unlocked. If two prisoners occupy the same cell, they must hold three hands on the door. Each prisoner must make his bed before leaving his cell.

Sec. 13. All complaints against a prisoner must be made to the officer in charge, who is required to promptly report him to the Warden.

Sec. 14. The Guards must not talk to the prisoners except when in the line of their duty.

Sec. 15. Smoking is expressly prohibited in the prison during working hours.

Sec. 16. Guards are strictly prohibited from receiving presents or gratuities of any description from the prisoners, or from the contractors.

Sec. 17. Visitors will not be permitted to go into the shops alone, they must in all cases be accompanied by a Guard. Visitors are also strictly prohibited from speaking to the prisoners, except at the bell-house, and there only by permission of the Warden or Deputy, and then in their presence.

Sec. 18. No visitors will be allowed on Sunday, except those who attend the prison for the purpose of teaching the prisoners in the Sabbath School, and such as are provided for by statute.

Sec. 19. Prisoners are not allowed to have lead pencils, or pen and ink, except by special permission of Warden or Deputy. Lead pencils will be furnished to write with and must not be cut or destroyed. Prisoners are not allowed to carry any library books to shops, neither are they permitted to carry any of the reading matter furnished to the idle shops to their cells.

Sec. 20. Any violation of the above rules and regulations by any prisoner, will subject himself to severe punishment and also to losing his good time.

Sec. 21. Any prisoner who shall attempt to escape from this penitentiary, or who shall be convicted of plotting an escape, or in whose cell or about whose person shall be found any instruments for effecting an escape, will subject himself to the severest punishment provided by law.

N. N. JONES,
Warden.

LAW REGULATING GOOD TIME OF PRISONERS.

An act to amend Chapter 154, laws of the Eighth General Assembly H. F. 341, regulating the good time of prisoners in our Penitentiaries.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF IOWA:

Section 1. On or after the taking effect of this act, every convict who is now or who may hereafter be confined in the Penitentiaries of the state of Iowa, and who shall have no infractions of the rules or regulations of the Penitentiaries or laws of the State recorded against him, and who performs in a faithful manner the duties assigned to him, shall be entitled to the diminution of time from his sentence as appears in the following table, for the respective years of the sentence, and pro rata for any part of a year where the sentence is for more or less than a year; provided, that this act shall not be construed so as to increase the good time earned by prisoners in the Penitentiaries of the state prior to the act going into effect:

NUMBER OF YEARS OF SENTENCE.	GOOD TIME GRANTED	TOTAL GOOD TIME MADE	TIME TO BE SERVED IF FULL TIME IS MADE
First year	1 month	1 month	11 months
Second year	2 months	3 months	1 year and 9 months
Third year	3 months	6 months	2 years and 6 months
Fourth year	4 months	10 months	3 years and 2 months
Fifth year	5 months	1 year and 3 months	3 years and 9 months
Sixth year	6 months	1 year, 9 months	4 years and 3 months

All years after the fifth year one-half time.

Sec. 2. In case any convict shall be guilty of the violation of any of the rules or laws of the Penitentiaries, or of the State, as above provided, and has become entitled to diminution of the sentence by the provisions aforesaid, he shall, for the first offence, forfeit, if he has made so much, two (2) days, for the second offence, four (4) days, for the third offence eight (8) days, and fourth offence sixteen (16) days, and in addition thereto whatever number of days more than one that he is in punishment, shall also be forfeited. For more than four offences, or for an escape or attempt to escape, the Warden shall have the power, with the approval of the Governor to deprive him of any portion of, or all the good time that the convict may have earned, but not less than as provided for the fourth offence.

Sec. 3. That whenever any convict is committed under several convictions with separate sentences, they shall be construed as one continuous sentence under this law in the granting or forfeiting of good time.

Sec. 4. The Governor shall have the right to grant any convict that has been, now is, or may be hereafter confined in the Penitentiaries, whom he shall deem a proper person to enjoy privilege, a certificate of restoration to all his rights of citizenship, as provided by law, although such convict may have been guilty of an infraction of the rules and regulations of the prison. The Warden, upon request of the Governor, shall in case of such application for such a restoration, furnish him a statement of the convict's deportment during his imprisonment, and may at all times make such recommendations to the Governor as he shall deem proper respecting the restoration to citizenship of any ex-prisoner.

Sec. 5. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Approved May 12th, 1890.

PREFACE.

The following catalogue has been constructed upon the basis of an alphabetical list of books, under classified topics. This arrangement has been found in practice more serviceable for the purposes of the library than the Authors' list hitherto in use.

From the classified table of contents appended hereto, it will be possible for the reader to turn at once to the section of the catalogue where the topic is to be found upon which he wishes to read.

INSTRUCTIONS AND RULES REGARDING LIBRARY.

Instructions and rules regarding library.

1. One of these catalogues, with a slate, pencil and Bible will be furnished to each cell. If any cell is not supplied, the Chaplain should immediately be informed.

2. This catalogue, as well as all library books, must be carefully preserved.

3. As the same book is liable to be called for at the same time by several persons, each man desiring a book from the library should write on his slate at least twenty numbers of such books as he would like to read, arranging his numbers in the order of his preference; or, if he has no special preference, he should arrange them in the order in which they follow each other in the catalogue.

4. When men are changed from one cell to another, their library books should, in all cases, be changed with the men. Should such change fail to be made, the cell room guard or the Chaplain should be immediately informed of the fact, by the prisoner.

5. By any defacement of books by soiling them or writing in them the prisoner doing the damage forfeits his privilege of drawing books; and any man guilty of cutting or tearing books renders him liable to the severest punishment. Baser ingratitude or meanness is scarcely possible than the defacement or mutilation of books generously furnished by the State. Books should never be doubled backwards.

6. Books will be distributed every week: On the North side—odd numbered cells—on Mondays and Fridays. On the South side—even numbered cells,—on Tuesdays and Saturdays.

7. A library book can be drawn each library day by returning the one in hand. In no case, however, can a prisoner have more than one book at a time. But if desired a book can be retained two weeks, under no circumstances longer.

8. Books must not be taken to the shop or out of the cells.

9. It is the guard's duty to see that no books are read or exchanged in his shop. If a prisoner is found with a library book in a shop or outside the cell room the guard will at once take the book and report the offender to the Deputy Warden.

10. Any violation of these rules shall deprive the offender of any further claims on the library.

A. H. JESSUP,
Chaplain and Librarian.
